

Leonard F. Beenick, Sr.

OBITUARY

Leonard Francis Beenick Sr., 57, of 700 W. John St., Frackville, died unexpectedly Tuesday in Mount Carmel.

He was born in Shenandoah, Oct. 26, 1931, a son of the late Joseph and Catherine Brecker Beenick. His mother died a year ago. He attended Frackville High School.

He was a salesman for Encyclopedia Britannica.

Mr. Beenick served with the Army during the Korean War.

He was a member of Northumberland Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8298, Sunbury American Legion Post, Ashland AMVETS Post, and Atlas Fire Company.

A brother, Larry, died in 1963.

Surviving are his wife, the former Doris Curran; six children, Reinhart Heiselbetz, in Germany, Kathleen Beenick, Shenandoah, James Beenick, Greeley, Colo., Leonard F. Beenick Jr., and Leslie Beenick, both of Alexandria, Va., and Bonita Bader, Gordon; seven grandchildren; three sisters, Rose Grady, Girardville, Bernice Bernotas, Ringtown, and Joanne Beenick Taylor, of Frackville; two brothers, Thomas, Germantown, Md., and Edward, Crofton, Md.; nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday from Lucas Funeral Home Inc., Mount Carmel. The Rev. Raymond J. Kulwicki will officiate. Interment will be in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Trevorton.

