

Rita M. Sarra

OBITUARY

Rita M. Sarra, Main Street, Maizeville died Thursday evening at Good Samaritan Hospital.

She was born in Mabel, a daughter of the late John Sankus and Anna V Meckes Sankus Stickler.

Mrs Sarra was a seamstress at Model Garment Co., Frackville, until retiring.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Church, Frackville, and a member and past president of Good Will Fire Company Auxiliary, Frackville.

Her husband, James, died in 1975.

Surviving are two sons, James C., Philadelphia, and Carmine J., Frackville, two daughters, Sandra, Pottsville, and Sharon Carson, Rock, Pine Grove area, two grandchildren; three brothers, John Sankus, Ashland, Peter Sankus and Arthur G. Stickler, both of Frackville, two sisters, Dorothy Sankus and Bella Hopkins, both of Frackville; nieces and nephews.

Services were held this afternoon at St. Joseph's Church. Interment was in the parish cemetery. Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville, was in charge of arrangements.

